Sightseeing

A Himeji Castle 姫路城

Japan's best preserved feudal castle

Himeji Castle is a brilliantly white castle located in Himeji, Japan. In 1993, Himeji Castle was named one of the first UNESCO World Heritage Sites in Japan. The castle is also a National Treasure of Japan.

B Kokoen 好古園

Japanese style garden next to the castle

Kokoen is a Japanese garden located next to Himeji Castle. It is made up of nine separate walled gardens designed in various styles reflective of Edo-period architecture. The gardens were opened in 1992 to commemorate the centenary of Himeji City.

C Shoshazan Engyoji Temple 書寫山園教寺

Temple mountain featured "The Last Samurai"

Mount Shosha is the site of Engyoji, an atmospheric temple complex with a history of over 1000 years. Due to the beautiful scenery and absence of modern infrastructure on its temple grounds, Mount Shosha is frequently used as a filming location for historical movies such as the Hollywood movie "The Last Samurai".

Rental Bicycle Service 姫ちやり

Rental Bicycle Service

The bicycles can be rented and returned at any of the Himechari cycle stations (Each station are written on the back).
